Information from the Republic of Kazakhstan concerning the implementation of Security Council resolution 1803 (2008)

In accordance with paragraph 13 of Security Council resolution 1803 (2008), we wish to report on the following steps taken by the Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan with a view to the effective implementation of that resolution:

The Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan is continuously monitoring the circulation of all items, goods, equipment, materials and technology which could contribute to nuclear activity by other States involving enrichment, reprocessing or heavy water, and also possible development of nuclear weapon delivery systems;

The Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan is monitoring the entry into and transit through its territory of individuals who are associated with the Islamic Republic of Iran's proliferation-sensitive nuclear activities or the development of nuclear weapon delivery systems;

The Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan is not concluding treaties or agreements or supplying goods, equipment, materials or technology which could contribute to the development of the nuclear programmes of any States;

The Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan does not issue licences for exports to the Islamic Republic of Iran or permits for the re-export of items that are subject to export control.
